

About the Authors

Eric L. Andrews is an attorney with Groth Law Firm. Mr. Andrews focuses on litigating personal injury and wrongful death matters on behalf of injured people throughout the state of Wisconsin. He first chaired two jury trials to verdict (Outagamie and Waukesha Counties). He graduated from Marquette University Law School in 2012 and UW-Eau Claire in 1998. He is a fellow of the Wisconsin Law Foundation (inducted 2016) and is a member of the Wisconsin Association of African American Lawyers (WAAL) (board 2012–17, president 2014–15). He served on the State Bar of Wisconsin’s Diversity & Inclusion Oversight Committee from 2014 to 2020, and he served as secretary for the Wisconsin Trust Account Foundation from 2020 to 2022. In 2021, he completed his term as treasurer on the State Bar of Wisconsin’s Board of Governors (2019–21). He also served as a general board member on (2016–17) and as WAAL liaison to (2014–2016) the State Bar’s Board of Governors. He served as assistant village attorney for the village of Shorewood, Wisconsin (2014–16). Mr. Andrews previously volunteered with the YMCA Sponsor-A-Scholar Mentoring Program, a program aimed at potential first-generation college students. His mentee graduated from Marquette University.

Jesse B. Blocher is a shareholder attorney at Habush Habush & Rottier, S.C.® His practice focuses on litigating personal injury cases, including those arising out of automobile accidents, premises liability, environmental pollution, products liability, and insurance coverage. He is a Board-Certified Civil Trial Advocate by the National Board of Trial Advocacy, having tried numerous cases to verdict. Mr. Blocher’s professional distinctions include the President’s Award from the Wisconsin Association for Justice, fellowship in the International Society of Barristers, recognition in the Best Lawyers in America, and inclusion as a Super Lawyer for many consecutive years. Mr. Blocher has authored several publications for the State Bar of Wisconsin and received the Charles Dunn Award for writing excellence in 2024. He has served on the State Bar’s Board of Governors, co-chaired the State Bar’s Bench Bar Committee, and is a fellow of the Wisconsin Law Foundation. Mr. Blocher graduated summa cum laude in 2006 from Marquette University Law School. He received his undergraduate degree in finance from the University of Wisconsin–Madison.

Patrick W. Brennan is a 1981 graduate of Marquette University Law School and is a shareholder with Crivello, Nichols & Hall, S.C. in Milwaukee. A former president of Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin and a former chair of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Litigation Section, Mr. Brennan primarily handles defense of civil litigation throughout Wisconsin and Illinois, where he is also licensed.

Thomas M. Burnett is a shareholder with Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. in Milwaukee. He is a member of Reinhart's Litigation Practice, where he represents clients before state and federal courts and administrative agencies at both the trial and appellate levels. He concentrates his practice in general business litigation, with a particular focus on post-acquisition M&A disputes, franchise litigation, and health care. He received his B.A. (cum laude) from Duke University and his J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Notre Dame Law School.

Nathaniel Cade, Jr. is an attorney with Cade Law Group LLC, where he focuses in civil rights, products, and commercial civil rights litigation. He also represents lawyers before the Office of Lawyer Regulation. Mr. Cade graduated from the University of Michigan Law School in 1996. He served on the State Bar of Wisconsin's Professional Ethics Committee from July 2000 until June 2007 and chaired the committee for three years. He also served on Wisconsin's Ethics 2000 Commission.

Craig A. Christensen is the managing shareholder of the Appleton office of Habush Habush & Rottier S.C. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater in 1980 and graduated cum laude from Marquette University Law School in 1985. He has been certified as a Civil Trial Specialist since 1997 by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. He is an associate of the American Board of Trial Advocates. Mr. Christensen is an adjunct professor at the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he teaches trial advocacy.

James M. Fredericks is a shareholder in the firm of Borgelt, Powell, Peterson & Frauen S.C. He received his B.A. (magna cum laude) in 1984 from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota, and his J.D. in 1987 from Marquette University Law School. He is the author of Comment, Excess Insurer's Duty to Defend After Primary Insurer Settles Within Policy Limits: Wisconsin After Loy and Teigen, 70 Marq. L. Rev. 285 (1987). Mr. Fredericks is a member of Wisconsin Defense Counsel and the State Bar of Wisconsin.

Victoria M. Karcher is a shareholder at Habush Habush & Rottier S.C., Wausau. She received her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin–Madison in 2007 and her J.D. (magna cum laude) from the University of Wisconsin in 2011. She represents injured parties in personal-injury cases, such as those involving motor vehicle accidents, safe-place claims, dog attacks, and other tort-based claims.

Olivia M. Kelley is a partner with the Wisconsin and Minnesota law firm of DeWitt LLP. She graduated from Marquette University Law School in 2009. She is the co-chair of DeWitt’s Litigation Practice Group and concentrates her practice in the areas of general civil litigation, construction litigation, and commercial litigation, with an emphasis on e-discovery and data management.

Christopher L. Lambrecht is a defense lawyer who concentrates his practice in the areas of personal-injury and general litigation. He received his B.A. in 2011 from Wisconsin Lutheran College and his J.D. in 2014 from Marquette University Law School. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and Wisconsin Defense Counsel.

Mindy M. Nolan is a criminal defense attorney and founding attorney of Nolan Defense Alliance LLC. Ms. Nolan concentrates in complex trial-level felony litigation and has obtained dozens of “not guilty” verdicts on behalf of her clients. In 2023, she was awarded both the Advocate’s Prize - Martin Hansen Memorial Award for a Not Guilty Verdict in a 1st Degree Intentional Homicide Trial and the Kuchler-Nicholson-Stilling Sensitive Crimes Award for Not Guilty Verdicts in a Sexual Assault Trial from the Wisconsin Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys. She presents at trial advocacy programs across the nation, sharing her passion for effective litigation with fellow defenders. She is also a member of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and is an active volunteer with Marquette University Law School’s Volunteer Legal Clinic for Expungement and Pardons.

Howard B. Schoenfeld is a partner with the Wisconsin and Minnesota law firm of DeWitt LLP. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1971. He concentrates his practice in appellate litigation, business, litigation, and personal injury.

Andrew J. Schwaba is a partner in the Schwaba Law Firm, Menominee, Michigan. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin–Madison and his J.D. from DePaul University College of Law in Chicago, Illinois. He is licensed to practice in Wisconsin, Michigan, and North Carolina and actively participates in each state's bar organizations. He is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates, the American Association for Justice, and the Wisconsin, Michigan, and North Carolina Advocates for Justice.

Keith R. Stachowiak is a shareholder with the firm of Murphy & Prachthauser in Milwaukee. He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Wisconsin in 1979 and passed the CPA examination in 1980. He graduated with honors from Marquette University Law School in 1983. Mr. Stachowiak is a Fellow of the Wisconsin Law Foundation, a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, and a board member of the Wisconsin Association for Justice. He has lectured and authored articles for presentation at continuing legal education seminars sponsored by the Wisconsin Association for Justice, for The Verdict, and for The MBA Messenger.

Susan R. Tyndall is a shareholder at Habush Habush & Rottier S.C. She received her B.A. from the University of Illinois and her J.D. (cum laude) from Marquette University Law School. She practices principally in civil litigation, with an emphasis on appellate litigation and insurance coverage. Ms. Tyndall has served on the board of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Appellate Practice Section, also serving as program chair and chair of the section. She was the founding editor of the former Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin's Wisconsin Civil Trial Journal and served as its editor from its inception until 2006. Ms. Tyndall authors a chapter regarding judgments in Wisconsin Trial Practice (State Bar of Wis. 5th ed. 2025) and a chapter regarding damages in legal malpractice actions in The Law of Damages in Wisconsin (State Bar of Wis. 9th ed. 2023 & Supp.). Ms. Tyndall is a frequent speaker and author on tort and insurance topics.

Hon. R. Michael Waterman has served on the St. Croix County Circuit Court since 2015. Before becoming a judge, he was a shareholder in the Hudson law firm of Mudge Porter Lundeen & Seguin, S.C., where he handled civil litigation and appeals for 20 years. Judge Waterman graduated from Hamline University School of Law in 1995. He is a frequent faculty member of the state judicial training programs and serves as the chair of the Civil Jury Instruction Committee.

William R. Wick is a defense lawyer who concentrates his practice in the areas of medical malpractice and general personal-injury litigation. He received his B.S. in 1970 from Carroll College, his M.P.A. in 1972 from the University of Southern California, and his J.D. in 1974 from Marquette University Law School. Mr. Wick was certified by the National Board of Trial Advocacy as a Civil Trial Specialist. He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and a past chair of the Litigation Section. He has also been president of Civil Trial Counsel of Wisconsin, now known as Wisconsin Defense Counsel. Mr. Wick is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. He has also been president of the Wisconsin Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates. Mr. Wick is a frequent lecturer on topics involving civil litigation.

Authors of Previous Editions

Hon. Michael O. Bohren
R. George Burnett
Gregory B. Conway
Frank T. Crivello
Merrick R. Domnitz
Mark R. Feldmann
Christopher K. Flowers
David G. Hanson
Michael J. Hogan
Robert L. Jaskulski
Kevin J. Lyons
Dean E. Mabie

Robert L. McCracken
John D. Murray
Anna M. Pepelnjak
Katelyn P. Sandfort
Jacqueline D. Schellinger
Thomas P. Schwaba
Francis X. Sullivan
John R. Teetaert
Justin F. Wallace
Hon. Lee E. Wells
Alyson K. Zierdt

